Thursday 8th February 2018

Dear Parents/Guardians,

We have been busy organising this year's school World Book Day which will be held on Friday 9th March!

On the day, children can dress up as a character of their choice from any text – fiction or non-fiction who represents one of our HEARTS values.

We are extremely excited that children's author-illustrator Chloe Inkpen will be joining us for the day! She will be running lively and interactive workshops with all year groups to hopefully inspire and stimulate their love for reading and give them an insight into the creative writing and illustrating world! Alongside these sessions, children will also engage in fun literature-themed activities in classes. You will see that we are also running an 'Extreme Reading' competition in the lead up to our World Book Day – see attached for details.

Finally, FACES will be running a book sale on Thursday 8th March. Chloe Inkpen's books will also be available for sale on this day which she is happy to autograph the next day. A pre-sale of her books is also available – please see the attached form.

We are all really excited for these events and can't wait to see you all dressed up and ready to read!

Thank you,

Miss Glover

EXTREME

COMPETITION

READING

Oh the places you can read!

Where's the most interesting, exciting and extreme place that you can enjoy a book?! Enter our school competition by sending in a photo of you reading in an 'extreme' (but safe!) place. Please put your name and year group on the back of your entry and post into the competition entry box in the office by Thursday 8th March 2018. The entries will be judged by our surprise guest author on our school World Book Day on 9th March!

Good luck and happy reading!

Chloë Inkpen Visit!

Chloë is an AMAZING storyteller and had the children ENTRANCED! They thoroughly enjoyed her visit and produced some WONDERFUL artwork too. A magical event! Ursula Channing, Orwell Park School, Ipswich

I've never seen such a large group of children so mesmerised and absorbed in a story! It was brilliant! The children loved doing all the actions and were totally immersed in the story. Kate Beckwith, Arts Education Outreach Officer, Essex University

A brilliant session, digging for pirate treasure, finding pants on the moon and singing with moony moles! Chloë was fantastic. The children were enthralled by her stories, illustrations and drama. Lucy Lawrence, Ashburton Library
